RE: Your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in response to your Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA) request dated 02/07/2020, in which you requested:

Please can you confirm by return (and, if possible provide documents in support):-

1. Any asbestos surveys conducted at the Bramshill Police College either before, during or after the alleged exposure
2. Any documentation relating to the renovation works being conducted between 1985 and 1990
3. Any documents or information in relation to works conducted by Haden Group for the College of Policing
4. Any H&S minutes relating to asbestos by the College of Policing
5. Any other documents in relation to asbestos at the Bramshill site.

Decision

When a request for information is made under the FoIA 2000, a public authority has a general duty under section 1(1) of the Act to inform an applicant whether the requested information is held. There is then a general obligation to communicate that information to the applicant.

Under section 1(1), I can confirm the College holds no recorded information within the scope of your request.

Your rights are provided at the bottom of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Kate Kaufman | Legal Researcher
