RE: Your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in response to your Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA) request dated 20/07/2020, in which you requested:

- The date(s) North Yorkshire Police placed a booking for their delegates to attend the National Database Train the Trainer Learning Programme which was scheduled for 20-23 April 2020
- The date(s) North Yorkshire Police placed a booking for their delegates to attend the ViSOR Train the Trainer Learning Programme which was scheduled for 3-5 June 2020.

Decision

When a request for information is made under the FoIA 2000, a public authority has a general duty under section 1(1) of the Act to inform an applicant whether the requested information is held. There is then a general obligation to communicate that information to the applicant.

Under section 1(1), I can confirm the College holds recorded information within the scope of your request. We have dealt with both parts of your request separately below:

The date(s) North Yorkshire Police placed a booking for their delegates to attend the National Database Train the Trainer Learning Programme which was scheduled for 20-23 April 2020.

Information held. The College received the booking form on the 4th February 2020.

The date(s) North Yorkshire Police placed a booking for their delegates to attend the ViSOR Train the Trainer Learning Programme which was scheduled for 3-5 June 2020.

Information held. The College received the booking form on the 4th February 2020.

Your rights are provided at the bottom of this letter.

Yours sincerely,
