RE: Your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in response to your Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) request dated 21/04/2020, in which you requested:

“Has your Organisation in the last 12 months procured Services or Resource from FDM Limited (Company Number 02542980) or Sparta Global Limited (Company Number 05597367)?”

Decision

When a request for information is made under the FOIA 2000, a public authority has a general duty under section 1(1) of the Act to inform an applicant whether the requested information is held. There is then a general obligation to communicate that information to the applicant.

We can confirm the College holds no recorded information within the scope of your request.

Your rights are provided at the bottom of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Kate Kaufman | Legal Researcher

Your right of review

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 you have a right to request an internal review if you are dissatisfied with our handling of your request. Review requests should be made in writing (by email or post) within 40 working days from the date of our original response. We will aim to respond to your review request within 20 working days.

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

If, after lodging a review request you are still dissatisfied, you may raise the matter with the ICO. For further information you can visit their website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/official-information/>.
