RE: Your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in response to your Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('FoIA 2000') request dated 29/01/2021 in which you requested:

"i want a list of requested reasonable adjustments by candidates who have applied for work because they are disabled

so this is in the application process before they have started a job preferably not a physical disability but learning difficulty or mental illness this is in the time period in the last 10 years if you have the records or last 5 years"

Decision

When a request for information is made under the FoIA 2000, a public authority has a general duty under section 1(1) of the Act to inform an applicant whether the requested information is held. There is then a general obligation to communicate that information to the applicant.

In line with section 1(1) of the FoIA 2000, I can confirm the College does not hold any information relevant to your request.

Your rights are provided at the bottom of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Kate Kaufman | Legal Researcher
